

Two upcoming PUBLIC Philosophy Events at the Garvald Inn

Who Owns the Clyde?

Discussion led by Louise Welsh (Professor of Creative Writing at the University of Glasgow), Jude Barber (Architect and Director at Collective Architecture) and Rowan Cruft (Professor in Philosophy at the University of Stirling).

All welcome! Thursday 28 May, 8pm until 10pm, in our Garvald Inn.

What Good is War Play?

Discussion led by Ebba Theorell, flying in from the Department of Child and Youth Studies at Stockholm University. Her PhD thesis considers aesthetic, musical, and athletic dimensions of children's war play.

All welcome! Thursday 11 June, 8pm until 10pm, in our Garvald Inn.