

GARVALD VILLAGE HALL

Information Pack

History of Hall

Garvald Hall was built as a Free Church c. 1843 and then became the church hall when the Free Church and Parish merged. When no longer required for its original purpose, a Village Hall Trust was formed and the building was purchased from its former owners.

Today, a Management Committee are responsible for the upkeep, ongoing maintenance and day to day running of the hall. Over recent years thanks to much support from local residents, the hard work of many different committee members and various generous grants, the hall has benefitted from a variety of upgrades including re-roofing, a new toilet block and excellent kitchen facilities.

We are delighted that such a super venue, in a lovely rural setting, is available for use by local residents and non-residents; all are welcome. It can be hired for meetings, classes, children's parties, wedding receptions, ceilidhs and many other recreational or leisure pursuits. It is a vital part of the community – a venue bringing social events for everyone to enjoy.

Hall Facilities

Garvald Village Hall is available for hire and can be used for many different occasions. The hall can be hired by the hour for a simple meeting or a children's party right through to an entire weekend hire for a wedding or larger event.

The hall itself is situated in the centre of Garvald opposite the play park and is accessed via a tarmac drive with lighting. There is an 'orchard' adjacent to the hall which can also be used by hirers as long as permission is sought from East Lothian Council. The Orchard is spacious enough to accommodate a small marquee should this be required.

On entering the hall there is a small hallway which leads into a corridor off which are the ladies and gents toilets. At the end of the corridor the door opens into the main hall which is 10.9 metres wide x 13.2 metres long. There is a stage at one end of the hall with a small meeting room to one side and disabled toilet to the other. The opposite end of the hall leads into a well appointed kitchen.
